dt se successful fight against encephalitis in eastern Uttar Pradesh as an example of the power of teamwork and research. He recounted, how since 1977, the region suffered over 40 years of devastation from encephalitis, which claimed the lives of thousands of children across 38 districts.

In the early years, proper treatment facilities were nonexistent, and even after vaccines became available, the virus adapted, prologing the crisis.
However in 2017, with the formation of his government, he

Within two years, the long-standing issue was effectively re-solved. The journey from facing a daunting challenge to achiev-ing results exemplifies the pow-er of teamwork and collective de-termination," he said. He urged the youth to min-mise mobile phone use, and for-cus their energy on hard work, studies, skill development, and connecting with naturu. "We must ensure that we control tech-nology and not let technology control us," he cautioned.

portunities that align with their interests and extend beyond per-sonal preferences. "Whether it's social service, women's and chil-dren's welfare, improving farm-ers' lives, or any other area that benefits society, choose a field and pursue it with dedication," he urged.

Highlighting the importance of honesty and oerseverance, he heurged.

Highlighting the importance of honesty and perseverance, he added, "There is no shortcut to success. Hardwork and integrity are essential for achieving consistent success in life." He also addressed the need for vision, preparation, and philosophical integrity in life, asserting that merely earning degrees or securing jobs should not define one's purpose. He praised Satyarth's achievements as a testament to perseverance and dedication.

Ex-wife's '₹3.3cr demand' drives man to suicide

Bengaluru: The suicide of a Bengalurus hased 34-year-of automobile company executive and a bitter legal battle over diverse, thild custody and estranged wife's Rs.3.c-core demand has ignited an intense debate on men's rights and mental health. A police complaint filled by his brother Blüca Stumar alleged that his wife and in-laws demanded Rs.3 crore to withdraw police cases against him and Rs.9 all bath. Grant him visitation rights to see his son. Subhash Atul was found dead in his apartment in Marutshallil area early Monday leaving behind a detailed suicide note and a video outlining the alleged ha-rassment he faced from his wife Nikita Singhania and her family. Police have registered a case of abet-ment to suicide agains Nikita Singhania, her mother Nisha, brother Anurag, and uncle Sushil Singhania. "My brother was mentally and physically exhausted ever since the court battle started. Every time he attended the court hearing, he was mocked by his in-laws and told to die if he could not pay the money or pay for the vis-tiation rights. These drove him to take the extreme step," Bikas said. 186
